

NEWS

IMPERIAL HOTEL OSAKA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

April 1st, 2024

TOSHIKI SUZUKI NAMED GENERAL MANAGER OF IMPERIAL HOTEL, OSAKA

April 1st, 2024; Tokyo, Japan: Japan's 134 year old Imperial Hotel, Ltd. has announced the appointment of Toshiki Suzuki as Managing Officer and General Manager of Imperial Hotel, Osaka, effective April 1, 2024. Suzuki steps into this role from his previous position as Deputy General Manager and Director of Sales.

Suzuki's journey with The Imperial Hotel, Ltd. began with comprehensive training programs in Tokyo and Kamikochi, leading to a rewarding 30-year tenure at the Imperial Hotel, Osaka. He climbed the ranks from the Food and Beverage Department to several key managerial roles, culminating in his positions as Director of the General Manager's Office in 2016, Director of Sales in 2017, and eventually Deputy General Manager.

In his remarks about his new role, Suzuki expressed his dedication to the Imperial Hotel Osaka's unique blend of urban convenience and natural beauty, stating, "Nestled near the city's vibrant heart, our hotel is a sanctuary amid Japan's famed cherry blossom sites and serene river views. Here, guests can unwind through the changing seasons, enveloped in our enduring commitment to hospitality. We warmly invite you to experience the splendor of Osaka with us."

Since its inception in 1890 in Tokyo, the Imperial Hotel has served as Japan's guesthouse. The Imperial Hotel, Osaka, opened in 1996 in the "City of Water," continues to embrace and enrich this legacy. As the hotel approaches its 30th anniversary, it remains steadfast in welcoming both local and international guests, celebrating a tradition of excellence and hospitality.