

Night Drive Plan

Driving Route

Enjoy Tokyo's unique scenery, with night views of both Tokyo Tower and Tokyo SkyTree, plus Rainbow Bridge, Kaminari-mon Gate and Tokyo Station.

Hotel → Tokyo Tower → Rainbow Bridge → Sumida River → SkyTree → Asakusa/Kaminari-mon Gate → Tokyo Station → Hotel

Tokyo Tower

Tokyo Tower lit up by 180 individual lights is a must-see when visiting Tokyo. And lucky visitors might even catch the "infinity diamond veil" lights which are also displayed on certain days of the week.

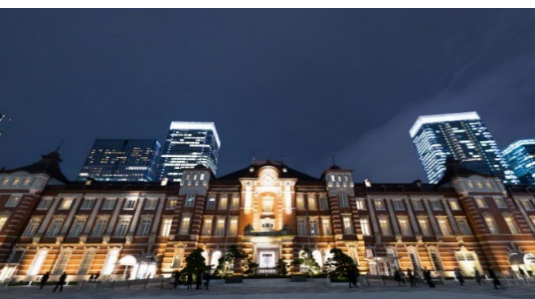

Rainbow Bridge

Rainbow Bridge beautifully illuminates Tokyo Bay, with the stunning contrast of white bridge tower lights and cable lighting that shifts and changes over time.

Asakusa/Kaminari-mon Gate

At 3.9 m tall and 3.3 m in diameter, this lantern hanging at the center of the gate is a famous Asakusa landmark.

Tokyo Station

A national important cultural property, the red brick Marunouchi Station Building at Tokyo Station is lit up from sunset until 9 p.m.

Route and Estimated Schedule

Time	Route/Night View Highlights
-	Depart from the hotel
0:10	Beneath Tokyo Tower Commemorative photo at Tokyo Tower
0:25	The night drive starts at the Shiba Koen Entrance on the Metropolitan Expressway.
0:30	Drive across Rainbow Bridge Enjoy the view of Tokyo Bay from Odaiba, with Tokyo SkyTree visible in the distance.
0:45	Follow the Sumida River from Hakozaiki JTC See the illuminated bridges over the river.
0:50	Get off at Mukojima Ramp, for an impressive, up-close view of Tokyo SkyTree.
1:05	Night views of Asakusa and Kaminari-mon Gate
1:20	Lights from various shops, stretching from Asakusa to Ueno and Nihonbashi.
1:35	Lights from the Marunouchi Station Building at Tokyo Station. A striking contrast between the beautiful brick station building and the surrounding office buildings.
2:00	Arrive back at the hotel.

- Departure times can be arranged to suit guest preferences.
- Exact times may vary depending on traffic conditions.

Time: approx. 2 hrs. ¥50,000 (minivan with up to 4 guests)
 ¥30,000 (sedan)
 (Both include tax and fees)

Reservations & Inquiries Tel: (03)3580-9326 Email: limo@imperialhotel.co.jp

IMPERIAL HOTEL LIMOUSINE SERVICE Ltd.