The Imperial Hotel, Kyoto Unveils Four New Dining Destinations

Tokyo, Japan: January 13, 2025 Imperial Hotel, Ltd. will open four food and beverage facilities at The Imperial Hotel, Kyoto scheduled to open on Thursday, March 5, 2026. Restaurant reservations will begin on Tuesday, January 13, 2026, at 10:00 a.m.

The Imperial Hotel, Kyoto is a small luxury hotel that harmonizes the unique atmosphere of Kyoto's historic Gion district with the Imperial Hotel's signature approach to comfort and hospitality. Welcoming guests from Kyoto, across Japan, and around the world, the hotel is dedicated to offering authentic culture, refined service, and exceptional experiences. Built within the Yasaka Kaikan, a registered Tangible Cultural Property in Japan, the hotel preserves the building's architectural legacy while harmonizing with the surrounding historical landscape to offer an experience that reflects the culture and charm of Gion.

OLD IMPERIAL BAR

This classic, authentic bar carries on the tradition of the Imperial Hotel. Inspired by the architectural elegance of the Imperial Hotel's iconic "Wright Imperial," the bar's refined atmosphere and sense of history provide the perfect setting to unwind. Enjoy meticulously crafted cocktails and attentive service from our seasoned bartenders, and allow yourself to fully relax in this dignified space.

In addition to the Imperial Hotel's signature cocktails familiar in Tokyo and Osaka, we offer Kyoto-exclusive original cocktails. These include the "Mount Hiei," a variation of the original "Mount Fuji" cocktail created over 100 years ago at the Imperial Hotel, blended with matcha.
